Aloha LoveTribe,

This is my view as I write, of the Bay from my office window (lucky me!). Watching the changing weather ... it's all beautiful from this view! The shifting weather patterns reflect the many changes I see in our community, which encourage us to strengthen our muscle of growing with the flow (and finding good views/ perspectives to watch from!). And offering many opportunities to become masterful at using change to "design forward", while letting go of attachments to previous designs and solid plans. Plans are "sketched in" and unfold in a combo of "let go and let goddess" and creativity.

This weekend plans now unfurling in the flow ...

Berkeley's Fourth St Spring Sidewalk Sale ... Happening Rain or Shine!

If it rains, our sidewalk sale will be inside. New "outdoor" racks with HUGE discounts ... spring cleaning!

Our sale is this Saturday and Sunday, although the rest of Fourth St. Sale is only Saturday, April 9th. Which by the way is my Diva "birthing day"!

Happy Birthday to my beautiful (in all ways) daughter Diva! By the way ... Diva is expanding her teaching to workshops and retreats abroad this year. She has a few spaces open! For a creative and cultural immersion filled with Diva's inspirational eye for beauty, insight and pleasure ... click here

Looking forward to seeing some of you this weekend!

xoxo Devi
