Aloha LoveTribe,

Many of you have asked me to extend the sale because you were out of town ... well it works out perfectly to do that! We don't have all our new fall in and the new fall we did have in is now depleted from the sale! SO... I will be going to LA tomorrow to replenish our favorite lines, and create some fun new collections! And most of the fall merchandise ordered is now coming in.

So we will be extending the sale through the weekend. Then next week my fabulous stylists/goddesses will be transforming the store into fall... as I visit my home and community in Hana Maui. Yummmmm xoxo Devi

What interferes with our great fullness are our judgements around the situations that feel disruptive, as our mind scrambles for control, it brings us out of the "presence of mind" where we can respond, dance well with the situation. By being in wonder and trust in the "unfolding" allows the flow of life force from our desire that this appears to be blocking. Wonder dissolves resistance allowing presence, presence allows response ability response ability allows great fullness.

Dancing in this fullness, is the wonder FULLNESS of life, leading to the great FULLNESS of now.

PS So many of you clicked through to watch the video, thinking that I had achieved making the above conversation into a video. It was close but not yet there. I'm still playing on it!
