Aloha Love Tribe,

Here's the line-up of tricks, treats, treasures, teachings & coupon...

The teaching and trick is to be with the experience of our shadow side without judgements of our self and/or others. With your mind be scientific as you observe your reactions ... with your emotions, feel them and express them responsibly ... with your soul essence, trust the unfolding.

The treats are plentiful (just by shifting our point of view!). Fourth St on Halloween day is having a street wide party. We have our usual (and unusual) treats, plus playdoh for the youngins and a shot of a blood orange morgue-a-tini (blood orange juice, mescal and tequila) for the over 21s. Many of the other shops are also serving up some fun drinks, snacks and activities! Dress your shadow to have fun together! Plus while supplies last... cozy cotton non-slip, slipper socks with your purchase (just ask!)

The Treasures

are plentiful as well. I've been on the road this last month (L.A., Maui, Ashland, San Miguel de Allende) and I now have a moment to let you know of all that has come in. Johnny Was, Biya, Love and Liberty, Citron, Moonlight, Deca, Inizio, Hanna (fabulous long patched plaid skirts) and so much more coming in daily.

For men, Robert Graham shirts, jeans and sweaters, 32 degrees jackets and my Robert's new favorite pants that I plan to carry on a regular basis... a five pocket knit pant ... so well crafted, so flattering, smart and as comfortable as your favorite sweat pants by my fabulous new friend David (Sweat Tailor).

Jewelry by Ayala Bar, Jan Michaels, Elisabetta, two very light weight aluminum lines, one from recycled car engines, that are large statement pieces, yet light and easy to wear, one from a collective in Guatemala super light earrings with big beauty impact. Plus a beautifully beaded collection, Crossroads and our own Hsiao-Yee designed and crafted delicate necklaces and earrings in semi-precious stones on silver and gold plated chains and wire-wrap at amazing prices.

Dias de Los Muertes ...

The veils thin, the shadows come into view ... stay out of judgements and into the experience ... celebrate all of life!

Whether dressing your shadow to bring into delight in a fun playful way ... or dressing your dream to enhance and call it forth ... as my friend Werner used to say, Health is a function of participation ... I toast a mogue-a-tini to your health! xoxo Devi
