Aloha LoveTribe!

We're celebrating International Woman's Day! Though as my friend Lisa Vogel says, Everyday is women's day in my heart.

Today there is also a demonstration of solidarity, from the originators of the Woman's March, called A Day Without a Woman.

On International Women's Day, March 8th, women and our allies will act together for equity, justice and the human rights of women and all gender-oppressed people, through a one-day demonstration of economic solidarity.

Being a small woman owned and run biz, shopping with us is in support of this. AND, we are celebrating by wearing red, providing a fun place to be together with some extra snacks and giving 10% of sales to Planned Parenthood.

AND 20% off one item with the Password: LoveTribe

And for those that know about the movement to send a "pink slip" to Trump (and his staff), we have printed some up and a LoveTribe member (Charlotte) is printing the mailing labels. They will be Outback starting Friday afternoon through the week, and you are welcomed to fill one out (bring a stamp :) Here's the card ... with space for you to add your own comments ... from crossing out the middle section to Trumpstyle ranting ... or sign and we'll send as is. We'll have decoration stickers on hand too!
