Robert and I had a fun 30 hour adventure for his birthday this week. There were times when we've had month long adventures, but these days our lives are filled with our work/play. So we expanded time by our intention for a deep, fun, adventure together and then followed our unified flow. If my flow shifted, his shifted by being present with me and vis-versa. We connected as deeply as our month long journeys!

1. Honoring my friends, at Ernesto's Altar in Bolinas, who recently woke from this dream (died in this life) my love Jerry, Piero, and those recently catapulted by natures' storms and quakes. 2&3. Robert and I watching the Sunset at Stinson.

We shot this short video to include you in our flow, merrily down the stream.
Life is but a dream... (yes, even the nightmares. With the movies people pay to watch these days, many people seem to enjoy these as well! And those of you who don't enjoy these, tune into the love and support available, which also grows during these times.)
Sha boom sha boom ...

Merrily flowing on the Matt Davis trail
