Aloha LoveTribe,

My daughter Shaye separated from her 7 week young son Kobe for a few minutes (rare!) to model some of the many new styles of cashmere sweaters in black, light gray, charcoal, blush and cream, that just came in. (And those fun comfy shoes too!)

Minnie Rose sweaters at our price of 30% off of regular retail (all current styles), is an additional 25% off with the password LoveTribe this week! Included in this offering are a colorful assortment of cashmere ponchos, scarves and shawls just in. And Johnny Was dip dyed cashmere sweater coats and ponchos, plus JW embroidered cashmere drape jackets. All 25% off this week. Other cozycomfort goodies ... socks and me moi leggings also 25% off.

Cozy warm is a great way to start a chilly season. Though cashmere is pricey, this big discount should help. And this "promo" should give us a needed boost, as retail sales in California have been hurt by the fires (and the rain put a damper on sales as well!) It's a win-win kinda cozy love.

Much love, Devi
