ASHLAND Temple/Shop

This Wednesday, Thursday, Friday 12-5 and Saturday 10- 5ish.

To Shop online click OutbackInTheTempleOfVenus.com.
FREE SHIPPING THIS WEEK!

Because of the way our online shop works, you can only put in one discount code at checkout. If you get Inizio at 50% off and don't get the 25% off other items we will credit you back. If this happened to you previously, let us know and we'll credit you back.

Ashland opened for a 4 day trial, (there is still another few hours today, Saturday) The last few days were very enjoyable for all. Everyone was so happy and appreciative! And the stylists/hostesses were also so happy to be serving the community again.

We are open the same hours next week although we will still go week by week as we see if being open continues to liquidate merchandise, pay bills and be fun and safe for all.

In Ashland because of 3 bad fire seasons and then fear of that happening again last year, even though it didn't, many tourists didn't come and the stores (restaurants and accommodations) depending on tourism took big losses the last few years. For us, our Berkeley Shop had to subsidize Ashland, even though the shop is well loved and everything is working in every way other than the bottom line. We are all doing our best to stay open as we all love the magic of this town and the community and want to support it in staying that way! After our successful first week, we are sending some of our Bay Area shop merchandise (more Johnny Was!) to be liquidated in Ashland. It's a nice reciprocity that Ashland can help out Berkeley as it looks like we won't be opening there or our Pt Richmond shops for another couple of weeks (or more).

We hope to see some of our beloved Bay Area community curbside Monday!

This Memorial Day let's re-member our community by being grateful that this current "war" is bringing together the world by appreciating the situation we are all in ... together.

xoxo Devi

Here's my current favorite mask. It uses non toxic threads, organic cotton, has a section for inserting a filter, though because of it's fit and fabric it is better then most cloth masks even without using an insert filter.

It is comfortable and you can pull in down below your chin easily, while still wearing it, for fresh air when no one is around and then easily back up when needed.

It comes in natural and all the colors to the left, plus their new blueberry, that are botanically dyed. Also larger size available soon.

These are quality masks at 2 FOR $36. ALTHOUGH WITH THE CODE:LOVETRIBE25 2 FOR $27
