Dear LoveTribe,

Today is Cinco de Mayo, mostly celebrated in the US to appreciate the delicious, beautiful, creative, kind and spirited culture of Mexico.

In Mexico, this anniversary day is mostly celebrated in the State of Puebla, Mx, where Mexico's defeat of the Second French Empire at the Battle of Puebla in 1862 occurred. And yearly since the spirit, tenacity and skill is celebrated as the Mexicans were greatly outnumbered by the French and were able to preserve their independence from the French.

Having lived part time and having a home in Mexico the last 24 years, I can attest to it being a culture that celebrates all aspects of life (and death)! Tomorrow on 4th St there will be a Mariachi Band, yummy foods and great company.

This year we will begin our Celebration of mothers, grandmothers, great grandmothers ... today!! Ole! And it will go through next weekend!

From now, thru mothers day, 20% off everything except sale racks, Magnolia Pearl and 1 item at 25% off!! This discount is only for you our LoveTribe so ...

Next week I will send out a Mother's Day email with a lot of photos of all the new fabulous summer styles ... photos of fabulous mamas and my current grandmother musings.
