This pic is Kobe and I playing in the mud. Robert asked Kobe what the meaning of life was. He said mud ... playing in the mud and then he stood up and said, growing like a lotus. (fyi lotus grow in the mud).

Dear LoveTribe,

Covid, rats and war ... oh my! So the holidays went something like a horror comedy ... and musical ... ya got to laugh a little, cry a little, get up and sigh a little ... that's the story of, that's the glory of love and life ... shaboom shaboom.

Looking at Life with the artists' eye, allows us to see beauty everywhere.

Looking at life from the spirit of compassion, with the awareness of our oneness allows us to see the divine in everyone.

Witnessing in solidarity, with compassion, the horror of actions taken out of fear, will allow our awakening.

Actions that are an effect of our disconnection to this awareness of our oneness and disconnection from the "Mother's" love.

Compassion is the way we will awaken and fix our broken soul. And while standing in solidarity ... dance, sing, write, see with the artists' eye and let in the joy, the beauty of this world.

A toast to the New Year ... Shining more in 24!

Feel the fear and ...

Be Fearless- Choose Love

xoxo Devi

Everyones favorite pant, Peaceful Samurai now in a wabi sabi version at 50% off.

Why are they everyones favorite? Could be

- the cut is very flattering for a fuller pant
- hidden pockets you just want to hangout in
- or the most comfortable fabric you probably ever wore (the danger is sleeping in them)

Why is it wabi Sabi and 50% off?

- Wabi Sabi - the perfection of imperfection, one leg is a bit twisted on the bottom, making the 2 pleats show up differently on each cuff.
- Why half off? Well we could have charged double as an art piece that reminds us life is perfect, even the imperfections. But we went with 50% off as that concept might be a stretch for many! :)
