Dear LoveTribe,

It's that time again ...

Our Semi-Annual Sale beginning with 30-50% off all clothing!

25% off Jewelry!

In 2 weeks the discount will be 50-70% off clothing (jewelry the same). But for better picks, now's the time! I'll give a heads up in a couple of weeks.

Kobe's Money Chart (as most of you know, he's my 5 yr old grandson.

Kobe decided he's the money manager Outback and he doesn't like banks. So he made a quick chart and request/demand I send it to you. So if you can't read it, what it says is: cash Saturdays, Sundays and Mondays, credit card Tuesdays, gold Wednesdays, silver coins Thursday and for you big spenders gold bar Fridays. I told him I would let you know but I wouldn't enforce it. Though I would let you have the extra 4% off for cash instead of the bank.

And another piece of news ...

We are opening another shop in Mill Valley in March! For those that remember, it will be in the same great space we were in before. We are experimenting with new names (not for our current shops but for new ones).

Being Outback, Devitalia, Outback Temple Venus, OTV, or? Those interested in the origin of our current name... click for the origin story of Outback in the Temple of Venus.

Shining more in 24!

Feel the fear, feel the love, and ...

Be Fearless- Choose Love

xoxo Devi
