Dear LoveTribe,

I'm on a re-set retreat. Taking care of and re-inspiring my body, mind and soul. Getting strong, grounded, ready for whatever unfolds in life.

I'm at the beautiful home by the ocean of my BFF Jan Michaels. She has been taking great care of me and we have enjoyed time together (and time alone).

Today my daughter Diva came to visit, bringing treats to my retreat which she did when she brought me here and set me up with nourishing support and beauty in so many ways. That's her talent as this is what she does for a living. She still has 2 spaces in one of her upcoming retreats and more @ <https://www.linea-carta.com>

This pic she took of me while scoping out some tide pools to celebrate my birthday Saturday with the family. Kobe (grandson) will LOVE this preserve! Joy!

Tomorrow Feb 28, as many of you know, is a day to take a stand and make a statement! Some of you will stand by going into retreat, some will not buy from Amazon/large corporations, some will carry on as usual. SMALL BUSINESSES ARE THE COMMUNITY GLUE. Like church for some, a friendly place to drop by to connect and inspire. If our whole societal structure broke down, shops like ours would become like the trading posts of the past. This last year has been very challenging for most small businesses, especially the ones in public spaces, shops and restaurants.

Let's support the movement to boycott big biz tomorrow, support small biz, and when possible pay in cash. Hope to see you soon!
