Shaye went into the Berkeley shop to do a one woman photo shoot. Enjoy some of the looks she made.

Dear LoveTribe

What if we told a vision instead of scrolled a vision. Like my friend Swami BeyondAnanda used to say, instead of watching television ... tell a vision.

I "woke up" from this "dream" of life in an experience that lasted a day/night about 30 years ago, although it took me over a year to fully fall back to "sleep" back to our normal unconscious "dream state". At that time I realized being in this "life, world, dream" was the gift. After all, I discovered, consciousness was literally nothing! The first "entry" back into something, was the word (now I understood, "in the beginning was the word" from the bible). Then came a sentence and the stories flowed from there.

About 20 years earlier then this I had an experience that led to the awareness that imagination is the force of nature.

Years later, I understood that what blocked this force, was blocked, stagnant or misplaced emotions. Though it wasn't until recently that I fully realized how emotions are the fuel to this force. Which is how misplaced emotions emanating from fear and the anxiety that creates, becomes the crazy violent aspect of this world.

So instead of scrolling the doom, gloom, hatred of the "other". Let's tell a vision of the world awakening into the awareness of our oneness, seeing there is no "other". Let's bring food, fun, appreciation, compassion and love where it's needed and we can, not draining our resources but enhancing "OUR" resources. No guilt for however weak that muscle is or what we feel unable to do. Not doing out of guilt or fear. Doing out of a vision ... living into the world we want to see and be in.

And not going back, but going forwards. An example would be instead of fearing AI, envisioning all AI being programed at it's core as a mother wanting the best for it's children ... all animals including humans ... plants, insects, reptiles, mushrooms ... a world in harmony, joy, creativity ...) This also includes creating a safe space for those things we think shouldn't be a part of this world whatever that is for you (for me it's guns which my grandson sees as a benefit). Not excluding warriors but training them with emotional intelligence. These are thoughts to inspire co-creation. What are yours? I'd like to weave them in and dress them!

For those of you on TikTok, Shaye has been showing a lot of clothing (and doing giveaways!) from Outback X Library.
@usernameshaye

We are producing some of our best fitting/selling styles in "left over" fabrics from other designers. And Shaye has been upcycling vintage garments and collecting great "recycled" pieces. We aim to have them all in time for the holidays! For now...
