My friend Caroline Casey, is offering a free event for those of you feeling times are dangerous, or for those like me feeling they are unpredictable and seeing them as divisive on the way to united. Carolyn's wisdom, magic and intuition will tweak your fears and words into joy, love and action while being delightfully entertaining. Click here

Time for big magic, big love, big fun and having conversations with those we don't agree, with words that foster love (and with that we need all the help we can get!)
being fearless by choosing love
xoxo Devi
