

Outback in the Temple of Venus

Ciao Bella Tribù d'Amore!
(Hey beautiful Love Tribe)

Looking over the sparkling Mediterranean Sea on the gorgeous Island of Salina in Sicily, Italy.

I'm with my daughter Diva, at her Slow Art Retreat. Great creative classes, with very talented and fun women. Delicious seafood, pasta, fruit, granitas, gelato ... Most of the things I had eliminated from my diet! But in this beautiful space, it's all working to make me feel great!

I was reminded that I hadn't offered a father's day special... Oops. So here it is...

For you or a father, a steward of life, (in whatever gender fluid form that comes in) 25% off all men's shirts, pants, socks, shoes, bags, hats, wallets ... And 25% off one of any other item.

Carolyn Stritch, who taught a class of tips for photography for Instagram, inspired me to start shooting and posting. I've posted a couple @devijuice. You can see Carolyns' beautiful photos @theslowtraveler, Divas' @lineacarta and you can see and follow the trip of our talented crew at our hashtag #slowartsicily2017 All on Instagram.

Now off for more pasta and gelato ... (Someone's got to keep that dream alive!)
