Hi LoveTribe,

I meant to get this out sooner but I'm finishing a week long flu retreat! Sleeping, sweating and binge watching Glee. That is until Shaye suggested the new, Queer Eye for the Straight Guy, wow! They are doing a fabulous job with this show, beautiful watching men help each other evolve.

So why I've been wanting to get out the word is, we are a finalist for Best of the East Bay ... Yay! And there is only have a few days to "get out the vote" for our LoveTribe . Fortunately it only takes a minute to vote!

Outback in the Temple of Venus, is a finalist for "Best of the East Bay" New Clothing category. We are near the bottom of the Goods and Services category. Click the link below and scroll down to find us.

Please give us a minute of your love and vote.

I and all the Outback stylists would appreciate it!
