(I went shopping at our warehouse for you today!)

So many of you let me know how my last email honoring my friends that have left this world, left you touched and inspired. I had said I would send the story of my friend Janina's Italian affair (I had her permission to write it), at 79 years young. This picture was Janina at 83 during her adventures in hospice (leaving for the theater because "I'm not dead yet!"). You can read the short love story here.

I look forward to seeing some of you this weekend! xoxo Devi
