Namaste LoveTribel!

While I was in LA shopping for Johnny Was and Citron (Wow! I scored big time!) ...

I went by Ricki's (designer/owner of Citron), to see this new sample I'm trying on in this pic. This silk blouse Ricki designed using my good friend Romio's Thangka painting of Buddha. Many of you have seen it on the front cover of his large book of Thangka paintings,

The Celestial Gallery. This is just a sneak preview, of a collaboration that began 11 years ago and will be part of a series ... collaboration, beauty and compassion! Limited addition coming next month! Yeah!

My shopping is done and now for your fun!

SPRING in our Temple Shop with an abundance of new clothing, jewelry, scarves, shoes, bags, ideas and spirit!

For those fans of Citron and Johnny Was, this would be the best time to get the best selection this spring.

Cortney in Nataya in the window of our Ashland Temple Shop

Also, a great selection of many other great lines like Hanna, Moonlight, Beyond Capri, Inizio, assorted couture pieces, and our ongoing sidewalk sale.

I'm feeling an easier more enjoyable time springing up (besides the ease that grows with the flow), as life unfolds in adventurous ways.

In joy, enjoy!

xoxo Devi

Last but not least.... Jade and Jewels!

Lisa Johnson who has worked and played at Outback for 30 years! ... Has opened a shop at 1564 Solano Ave., with her love Troy and their longtime passion for each other and Lisa's passion for jewelry making (many of you have bought at Outback over the years) and Troy's passion for Jade (especially Big Sur and Monterey Jade).

They also have paintings, pillows (I bought one of the fab catus pillows you can see in the pictures) and ceramics. AND have a passion for small biz, so please give them some love! Mention LoveTribe and get 10% off!
