In the midst, the mists, the smoke of alchemy ... we are in legendary times.

Being gentle with ourselves and with others is essential right now.
These aren't the times to righteously hold on to our positions.

These are times of forgiveness, of holding our beliefs in gentle loving ways, as we release those beliefs that no longer serve us and others.

May your days be filled with synchronistic miracles ... small and large, that expand as you notice and appreciate them.

As always ... Being Fearless - Choosing Love
xoxo Devi

Our online shop is still open: But under reconstruction

- Although it works great on your laptop or tablet, it's hard to navigate on your mobile right now.
- we will begin to make markdowns online, so codes don't have to be put in but in the meantime will give the current LoveTribe discount as a refund.
- Because of things selling from the shops before we can take them offline, we can't guarantee we have it but we will refund within a day.

SO ... If you still want to try it!
